Department of Strategic Communication

The mission of the Department of Strategic Communication is to prepare our students, through theory and practice, for success in public relations, advertising and related industries. The department offers two degrees: a Bachelor of Arts in Advertising and Integrated Communications and a Bachelor of Arts in Public Relations.

The BA in Advertising and Integrated Communications program prepares students to understand and apply principles of advertising, branding and audience analytics in creating campaigns that maximize the strategic impact of content for web, social media, mobile devices and traditional media.

The BA in Public Relations program prepares students to be entry-level practitioners for careers in agency, corporate, government and nonprofit public relations. Among the most important essential learning outcomes stressed in the major are critical thinking and reasoning skills. Our graduates offer strategic counsel to their employers and clients through writing, research and implementation.
