Currently, over 21 percent of Quinnipiac undergraduate students are members of the 21 fraternities/sororities on campus. The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life is committed to advancing fraternities and sororities through intellectual and interpersonal development within the Quinnipiac University community and beyond. The office is guided by a set of shared values, known as “Pillars,” which shape all community programming and initiatives from the new member experience through Commencement.

The Pillars are:

- Leadership through strength of character
- Growth through intellectual excellence
- Service through civic engagement
- Community through diversity and inclusion

The office provides programs that exemplify the values of the community, such as the Greek Leadership Series, Officer Training Academy, FOUNDATIONS New Member Experience, Social Event Manager Training and more.

Staff in the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life offer advisement, programming and experiences that are intended to complement the numerous occasions for leadership and involvement provided by individual chapters and their respective governing councils. These experiences afford students opportunities to gain proficiency in the Quinnipiac Essential Learning Outcomes.

Women have the opportunity to join one of nine National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) sororities, one National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) sorority, or one National Association of Latino Fraternal Organizations (NALFO) sorority, which are governed by the Quinnipiac Panhellenic Council.

Governed by the Interfraternity Council, men have the opportunity to join one of 10 North-American Interfraternity Conference (NIC) fraternities.

Quinnipiac also has a chapter of the national honor society for fraternity/sorority students, Order of Omega. Order of Omega is an academic and leadership honor society. Juniors and seniors with a GPA above or equal to the all-fraternity/sorority GPA are able to seek membership.
