COMPUTER FACILITIES

The Cyber Cafe on the second floor of the Arnold Bernhard Library is available to all students. This facility consists of networked Windows-based computers and high-volume printers, which can be used for completing computer assignments, writing papers and accessing the Quinnipiac electronic system. There are additional computer labs around campus.

All Quinnipiac students have wireless access to the internet and email from all classrooms and the residence halls.