The Office of the Bursar is the accounting office of Quinnipiac and is responsible for billing all student accounts and receiving tuition and other payments. The office provides information on all charges and assists officers of student organizations in setting up and maintaining financial records. Visit qu.edu/bursar for more information.