

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN LIBERAL STUDIES

The Liberal Studies degree program offers the opportunity for adult and nontraditional students to choose concentrations in a number of fields. Eligible students have maximum flexibility in the utilization of previously earned credit and in the selection of new courses to meet their personal and academic goals. Each program is individually designed by the student with approval by the dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. Students complete the College of Arts and Sciences requirements, 15 credits at the 300-level and at least 27 credits in the area of concentration.
