The BA in Professional Studies is designed for students who have completed a significant number of credits and are seeking a new pathway toward completing a bachelor's degree. This program is open to existing students, returning students and transfer students. Students have maximum flexibility in using previously earned credits and can complete the program using online or on-ground options, including summer and January terms. Students in the program will work with the dean of the College of Arts and Sciences (or designee) to design an individual course of study that consists of a concentration of at least 27 hours with at least 15 credits at the 300 level.
